British Garden Centres back at BBC Gardeners' World Live for 2023

Family-run group Britain Garden Centres is delighted to announce that we are back at BBC Gardeners World Live in June.

The show which takes place at the Birmingham NEC from June 15th to 18th and will feature stunning Show Gardens, Beautiful Borders, the Floral Marquee and Plant Village to shop from a vast array of nurseries including two stands by British Garden Centres with an unbeatable variety of plants.

Make sure you visit both BGC stands in the main hall, jam-packed full of the latest plants and luxurious furniture that will make your outdoor living area the place to be. Our friendly team will be on hand to advise on the best varieties on the stand which will be a plant-buyers' paradise not to be missed. If you can't leave our garden centres without an armful of new additions, you'll love what we have on display with special show promotions. No matter the space you have available, British Garden Centres will offer plenty of inspiration.

The BBC Gardeners' World Live Theatre will once again be sponsored by British Garden Centres and is the place to be inspired by informative talks from gardening experts, from the comfort of a pre-booked seat, all hosted by Nicki Chapman. Many big names are expected to appear on the stage including Monty Don, Adam Frost, Carol Klein, Frances Tophill, Chris Collins, Michael Perry and Alan Titchmarsh.

The Show Gardens will inspire amateur gardeners with take-home ideas which can be used when they develop their gardens. Both inspirational and aspirational, the gardens will showcase different styles with realistic budgets so visitors can visit our stand for help on how to 'get the look' from the show.

And with tickets also allowing entrance to the BBC Good Food Show, live entertainment and activities make for a spectacular day with friends and family. Make sure you book your tickets today! Quote BGC20 for 20% OFF Thursday, Friday and Sunday tickets.* This offer ends 10th May 2023.

Amy Stubbs, Development and Project Manager at British Garden Centres said: " We are delighted to be attending the show again and sponsoring the BBC Gardener's World Live theatre. It is the ultimate day out for anyone that loves their outdoor space. If you're a keen gardener looking to pick up new tips and garden ideas, then please visit

About the business:

British Garden Centres (BGC) is the UK's largest family-owned garden centre group with 62 centres around the country. The group is owned and led by The Stubbs family, who also own and operate Woodthorpe Leisure Park in Lincolnshire.

BGC was launched in 1987 with the opening of Woodthorpe Garden Centre funded by brothers Charles and Robert Stubbs. Since 2018 it has expanded rapidly with the acquisition of 50 garden centres allowing it to grow from its heartland to the business it is now with 62 garden centres spread from Carmarthen to Ramsgate, Wimborne to East Durham.

The group has a team of 2,700 colleagues working across the garden centres, restaurants, 2 growing nurseries, 4 distribution centres and Woodthorpe Leisure Park and Woody's Restaurant & Bar.
