British Garden Centres launches national Decorate Your Door this Autumn competition

British Garden Centres is celebrating the beauty of the autumn season by inviting the public to take part in its popular Decorate Your Door for Autumn competition.

As the nights draw in and the leaves begin to fall, the UK's largest family run garden centre group is encouraging households to get creative and dress their doorsteps with seasonal style. From seasonal foliage to autumnal wreaths, berried plants, lanterns and harvest inspired displays, the competition is all about showcasing the warmth and vibrancy of autumn right on your doorstep.

The competition is open now and runs throughout September and closes on October 12th. Entrants need to snap a photo of their autumn themed door or porch and submit it via the British Garden Centres website <https://www.britishgardencentres.com/decorate-your-autumn-door/> or by scanning the QR code on the poster in your local British Garden Centres store.

Enter for a chance to win gardening prizes worth up to £500, including a British Garden Centres Gift Card and a range of gardening products from suppliers including Westland, Evergreen and Gardena. Winners will also be featured on British Garden Centres' social media pages, giving winners the spotlight to inspire others with seasonal creativity.

Lucy Hewitt, Marketing Campaigns Manager at British Garden Centres, said: "Autumn is such a wonderful time of year to embrace colour and creativity. We wanted to launch a competition that brings communities together and spreads a little seasonal joy. Doorsteps are often the first impression of any home, so why not make them a celebration of autumn and cheer up your neighbourhood as summer fades?"
