Brigg Garden Centre announces exciting half-term Halloween events

Brigg Garden Centre is set to become the centre of Halloween festivities this October half term, inviting families to enjoy a programme packed with creative and spooky activities. The centre's popular Little Bugs Soft Play will be the hub of fun from 27th to 31st October, with themed messy play sessions and crafts designed to entertain children of all ages.

Throughout the week, the frightful activities are all included in ticket prices, as well as unlimited access to soft play. The centre's outdoor and indoor spaces will be transformed into a Halloween playground, offering safe, fun-filled entertainment to keep children engaged during the school holidays.

From Monday 27th to Wednesday 29th October, children can join in Monster Messy Play sessions from 11 am to 3 pm, featuring pumpkin activities, monster gloop, and spooky playdough. Then on Thursday, 30th and Friday, 31st October, also from 11 am to 3 pm, kids can enjoy Halloween crafts, including making bats, monsters, cats, and witches.

On Thursday, 30th October, there is also a fun but eerie Halloween Disco from 5 pm to 7 pm. It promises a lively evening full of ghoulish games, dancing, and a chance to show off fancy dress costumes in the Freakish Fancy Dress Competition.

Libby Stubbs, Events Manager at British Garden Centres, said: "We are really excited to welcome families to Brigg Garden Centre for a week full of Halloween fun and creativity. Our team has planned a range of hands-on activities and spooky crafts that little ones will love, alongside the chance to enjoy unlimited soft play. It's a wonderful way for local children to enjoy half term and celebrate the season with friends and family."

Notes to Editors: British Garden Centres (BGC) is the UK's largest family-owned garden centre group, with 73 centres around the country. The group is owned and led by the Stubbs family, who also own and operate Woodthorpe Leisure Park in Lincolnshire. BGC was launched in 1990 with the opening of Woodthorpe Garden Centre, funded by brothers Charles and Robert Stubbs. Since 2018, it has expanded rapidly with the acquisition of 50 garden centres, allowing it to grow from its heartland to the business it is now, with 73 garden centres spread from Carmarthen to Ramsgate, Wimborne to East Durham. The group has a team of 2,700 colleagues working across the garden centres, restaurants, three growing nurseries, 4 distribution centres and Woodthorpe Leisure Park and Woody's Restaurant & Bar.
